Why Nuggets

The answer to information overload: In midst of 'attention economy,' there exists an overload of information, while attention continues to remain a scarce commodity.

Nuggets distil information: Nuggets target specific information to utilize the learners time efficiently.

They are suited to: Learners who have little time available for training.

As well as who need a quick update or refresher without having to shift through reams of information.

Off-the-shelf and custom-made nuggets available on desktops, laptops & smart devices!

Topics range from managing meetings to agile selling. The first series of a dozen nuggets are available for a 7 day free trial license.
